MERCHANTS DESIRE PROTECTION.

They Think Transient Traders Should Take Out License.

An ordinance is desired by the merchants of this city requiring outsidere who come to compete with local dealers to take out a license. The following potition was received by the select council on Monday evening:

To the Honorable, Select and Common Councils of the City of Carbon-

Gentleman-Your petitioners would respectfully state that they are taxpayers and tradesmen of said city; that the various lines of business in which they are engaged are being greatly injured by the operations of the various hucksters and peddlers who frequent our thoroughfares. They therefore pray your honorable bodles to pass such ordinances as will compet all transient peddlers and hucksters to take out city licenses, thus placing them in a legitimate position and compelling them to bear a portion of the expense of the city government. "A Divorce Cure," in which Miss Emily Bancker and her company will be seen at the Acadamy of Music tonight, is the work of Harry Saint Mur. who dramatized it from his own adaptation from a story of the original French of Sardou, called "An Averted Divorce," The lines abound in enforced wit and spontaneous repartee, the situations are invariably fellcitous, while the climaxes are developed in a manner so natural that one is actually startled by the strength of the scene from which each succeeding curtain falls until the denouement. No playgoer who has proper appreciation of the good things of the drama can afford to miss seeing Emily Bancker in "A Divorce Cure." ### LET THERE BE LIGHT.

Closed Shutters Mean Disease, Doctors' Bill and Death.

A sunbeam is a small thing, yet it has a power to fade the carpets and curtains, to rot the blinds, and for this reason some folks carefully exclude the sunshine. What is the result? The family is always ailing, the young girls have a waxen, white skin and a weary, pinched expression of countenance Their appetites fall, they fall into such a bad state of health that the doctor is called in. In olden days he would have shaken his head, perhaps, and friends would have whispered that dreaded word "decline!"

Nowadays he notes the pale gume and waxen skin and says "anaemia;" prescribes iron and milk, fresh air and exercise, and often a change, knows nothing about the darkened rooms, he will be puzzled as to why no permanent improvement manifests itself, and, possibly, the patient will seek other advice.

Comrades. "Something ought to be done to prevent nose two lunatics from going out rowing gether." exclaimed the nervous woman y-stander. "Each is in good company One of 'em is the man who rocks the boat and the other is the man who wants to ee how far from shore he can swim."-

$3.00 A MONTH UNTIL CURED.

Doctor St. John Makes a Nominal Rate for the Crowds of People Who Are Seeking His Services.

Until the First of May He Will Treat All Patients, Supplying Them with Medicines, for $3 a Month, and All Placing Themselves Under Treatment Before May 1st, Will Be Treated at this Rate Until Cured.

He told the people that he came with a clearly defined purpose, to show by the results in his own practice under his personal care and attention the wonderful value of the latest discoveries in medicine when properly applied, and of the marvelous results of his True Homoeopathic Treatment for Catarrh, He did not ask the people to take him on faith. He told them that until April 1st he would treat all who came to his offices absolutely free. He agreed not only to doctor the sick, but to supply them with medicine without cost as well. How well Doctor St. John has kept his promise the people of Scranton can tell, eighteen hundred of our most intelligent 800 sick people have already been cured or much benefited.

The good he was doing had so spread among the people that toward the last the majority of those who consulted him did so without regard to the free effer, and only sought his aid because they had cost.

When Doctor St. John established his practice in Scranton he told the people that he would introduce methods of curing them of which they were uninformed. The news of the way he had kept his promise to the public, the news of the fact that he absolutely refused to receive a cent from any one, had spread like wild-fire, and the throngs toward the last were so great that had he been twenty doctors instead of only one duc-tor, he could not have cared for them. Doctor St. John would like to treat every sick person in Scranton absolutely free, but even if he were a millionaire a hundred times over and could afford to do this, the crowds that thronged his office during the past few days have shown the impossibility of it. While he cannot treat all free forever, he can, however, people have visited him, have consulted do one thing, and that he will do; that with him in person, have received the is this: For one month he will treat all needed counsel and medicine, and over at a nominal fee, just enough to cover the cost of the needed medicine. J. Lynett, owner of SCRANTON EVENING TIMES, who is well acquainted with Doctor St. John's reputation, and with the fact that he has established and pro-poses to continue his office practice in the the SCRANTON EVENING TIMES aware of the fact that Doctor St. John would not allow this to be published if it were not absolutely true.

Doctor St. John's offices are permanent.

His leases and contracts are for a term of years. Doctor St. John is himself in charge of his practice. He sees each one of his patients personally. He does not leave his professional work to assistants or hired men. All who visit his office consult with him in person.
